

Statement from Enterprise Canada on comments from today's Emergencies Act Inquiry

November 21, 2022

TORONTO, ON – Today, in the scope of the Emergencies Act Inquiry, Brendan Miller, the lawyer representing “Freedom Corp” made an entirely unsubstantiated and deeply offensive accusation against Enterprise Canada principal Brian Fox.

For the record, there is no truth to this absurd and despicable accusation. Neither Brian Fox, nor anyone from Enterprise Canada was in attendance at the “Freedom Convoy” protests in any capacity. Mr. Fox was in Toronto for the duration of these protests and had no involvement in them.

Mr. Fox and everyone at Enterprise Canada stands firmly against the hatred represented by the symbol Mr. Miller referenced, and strives for our workplace to be an inclusive and accepting environment for everyone.

Share

Stay informed

Sign-up to receive our updates in real-time directly to your inbox.

First Name*

Last Name*

Email*

Area of Interest (select all that apply)

All

Submit

This site is protected by reCAPTCHA and the Google Privacy Policy and Terms of Service apply.

Enterprise⁷ Canada

Careers

Interested in joining the team at Enterprise?

Visit our careers page or send your resume to: careers@enterprisecanada.com creative currency

An ad agency + content studio. Enterprise's sister agency.

